

DGA MONTHLY

APRIL 2006

Spring Events at the DGA

IDC PRESENTS: Director's Finder Screening Series

Brought to you by the Guild's Independent Directors Committee, this series is designed to help find distribution for unreleased low budget and indie films directed by members under a DGA agreement.

JAM

Directed by:
Craig Serling

Friday, April 21, 2006

3:00 p.m.

Theatre 2

Please RSVP to

(310) 289-5366

Jam takes place in the midst of a standstill traffic jam on a country highway during Father's Day. Stuck on the road with no end in sight, the ordeal becomes a life-changing experience for this diverse group of travelers.

UNIT PRODUCTION MANAGER: NEIL DeGROOT

FIRST ASSISTANT DIRECTOR: RUBY STILLWATER

KEY SECOND ASSISTANT DIRECTOR: MELINDA JOHNSON

SECOND ASSISTANT DIRECTOR: MELISSA LEKUS

SECOND SECOND ASSISTANT DIRECTOR: BLAKE PERKINSON

STARRING: Christopher Amitrano, Elizabeth Bogush, Dan Byrd, Julie Claire, David DeLuise, Amanda Detmer, Amanda Forman, William Forsythe, Tess Harper, Marianne Jean-Baptiste, Jeffrey Dean Morgan, Mariah O'Brien, Alex Rocco, Jonathan Silverman, Gina Torres

RUNNING TIME: 90 MINUTES

COL·COA

CITY OF LIGHTS • CITY OF ANGELS

A WEEK OF FRENCH FILM PREMIERES IN L.A.

African American Steering Committee Presents:
A Tribute to F. Gary Gray

IDC-East Presents:

Emerging Digital Technologies Seminar

Asian American Committee Presents:
An Evening with Andy Cheng

Also in this issue:

- DGA Releases Diversity Hiring Statistics
- Digital Workshop at Panavision
- April Screenings, Meetings and Events